

Gregory W. LeFils, CPA

For over thirty years, I have specialized in identifying and meeting the needs of professionals, individuals, and closely held businesses in my local communities. My expertise includes transition of ownership, tax planning, and related issues affecting businesses and individuals together with providing chief financial officer type accounting services on an outsource basis.

A native of Florida, I received my BBA degree in accounting from Stetson University. After graduating in 1981 I concentrated on developing accounting services and programs suited to best serve small business. During this process I have been instrumental in assisting many small business client achieve their goals of financial success.

I am very active in the Central Florida community and have served as Chairman and/or President of the West Volusia Family YMCA, the Central Florida Officials Association, and the Orange City Chamber of Commerce. I am currently members of the Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Volusia County and the Florida Cattlemen's Association.